

National Leadership Forum
COMMUNITIES OF LEARNING | KĀHUI AKO LEADERS
NAVIGATING 2017

3-4 NOVEMBER 2016
Mātauranga House, Bowen Street, Wellington.

DAY TWO – 4 November

Hosted by the Education Council

8.00am	Tea and Coffee
8.30am	Reflecting on day one Education Council - Barbara Ala'alatoa
9.00am	STRATEGIC THINKING Melissa Clark Reynolds: An interactive session on strategising, innovation, change management and leading others from professional company director Melissa Clark Reynolds
10.30am	Morning tea
11.00am	Discussion groups Choose topics that most interest you Options include: Structures and how we work / New roles and what they are doing / The next phase (beyond appointments and Achievement Challenges) / Sharing our experience so far
12.30pm	Lunch
1.00pm	PUTTING COMPETENT, CONNECTED, LIFE-LONG LEARNERS INTO ACHIEVEMENT CHALLENGE WORK Cathy Wylie NZCER Cathy Wylie discusses the evidence around the importance of integrating key competencies and building wellbeing and resilience for student progress on measures such as national standards and NCEA, and ways to integrate this dimension into CoL work and review of your own progress.
1.45-2.45pm	WHAT'S NEXT? A whole group discussion about leadership.