

Leadership Strategy Development Timetable

“The intention is for the Council to work with the leadership community and provide the context for the collaborative development of a leadership development strategy”.

Activity

Focusing questions/statements

February
2017

27th Academic Forum – Chair: Tony MacKay

Commission 3 papers (academic/jurisdiction summaries/data narratives)

Achieving valued learner outcomes in our fast changing world requires adaptive leadership focused on evidence at all levels of a flexible system. What does effective leadership in a future New Zealand context look like and why?
AND
Our challenge lies in translating the knowledge about what leaders do that works into a shared practice. How will we achieve our vision of effective leadership throughout the system?

March 2017

23rd Agency Symposium – Chair: Craig Jones
31st Profession conference (PEAK bodies)– Update on findings so far Chair: Centre of Leadership Excellence Convener and Vision / Strategy Workshop– led by Melissa Clark Reynolds
Publish and share:
thought leadership piece from Academic Forum

Where are we as a profession - and why? What trends does the data show?

What conditions are required to enable leaders to be effective?

What do we want the state of leadership within the profession to be in 10 years, why, and what is critical to get there?

April 2017

Publish and share:
vision work.
summary of feedback so far / presentation summary to stakeholder groups
symposium data summary
summary of other jurisdictions

Invitation sent to all PEAK bodies for regional conversations with Frances Nelson: Convener of Centre of Leadership Excellence

What are the critical factors for leadership in our region? What are the innovations and constraints for growth?

May 2017

Publish and share:
Middle leadership paper
Thought leadership from profession conference

June 2017

Provider Clinic: Chair Centre of Leadership Excellence Convener. Date TBC
Māori Forum (Date and Chair: TBC)

Academic forum: (Tony Mackay)

30th Profession conference– Update on findings so far Chair: Centre of Leadership Excellence Convener TBC

What conditions are required to enable leadership support to be effective? What are the practicalities of smart provision?

What knowledge skills or resources are critical for enabling Māori leadership in education across the profession?

Do the principles and findings to date align to the evidence? What critical elements need further discussion? What work needs to be done to establish measures and benchmarks in this context?

Do the principles and findings to date align to our vision of leadership? What critical elements need further discussion?

July-
September
2017

Publish and share:
DRAFT vision with design principles, goals, actions, and key outcomes written and shared with key stakeholders / contributors for feedback.
mechanism for feedback evidence of where feedback has shaped work.

Seek wide feedback and input on the collaborative development of a leadership development strategy.

October
2017

Publish draft strategy and mechanism for feedback.

Copy of strategy to all organisations, whole profession and downloadable for through our website.

Implement Communications plan to share key points of Strategy with profession

Seek wide feedback and input on the collaborative development of a leadership development strategy.

November
2017

Publish 2018 planning and programme

Working groups for 2018 formed.